Sierra Pacific Windows

Value means you can have any size, shape or color you want...
 see how easy that was.

Sierra Pacific Windows... have you discovered us yet?

Custom... dramatic... one of a kind... these are the words you hear when clients describe the windows and doors they want in their dream home. Sierra Pacific Windows specializes in producing state-of-the-art windows and doors to suit every individual taste and style. Begin by combining any number of casement, awning, double hung, slider, bow and bay or specialty shapes. Add a customized sliding or swinging door. Choose either a gorgeous Ponderosa Pine or Douglas Fir interior, coupled with any of our three standard simulite bar widths in two simulite profiles (Contemporary and Colonial) and you're well on your way to a truly one-of-a-kind design. Unique lite configurations and custom design flexibility add up to windows and doors that your clients will treasure. Energy efficient, flexible and beautiful with superb quality... let us help you make your next project the best you've ever built.

Capture the view through a casement combination with custom accent shapes.

Pick a shape... any shape.

Sierra Pacific Windows offers almost unlimited flexibility in the shapes, mulling possibilities and lite configurations of our windows and doors. In fact, flexibility is one of Sierra Pacific Windows most valuable selling points for today's custom builders and architects. Choose from any number of radius or geometric shapes. Enjoy nearly unlimited mulling options. At the same time, utilize a unique lite configuration. Looking for that extra custom touch combine any of our three simulite bar widths in a single window. Now available are two simulite profiles (Contemporary and Colonial) to add that unique touch making your vision a reality. Custom windows and doors... if you can imagine it, Sierra Pacific Windows can build it for you.

Need some help...

Call our service centers to speak with our professional staff, who will help you with your window decisions... now that's value.

Personal, individual attention... it matters.

Sierra Pacific Windows has eleven service centers located throughout the western United States. Each service center is staffed with knowledgeable personnel who are familiar with our products and committed to taking extra care of you and your client.

All window and door service is locally scheduled – giving you direct access and faster response through your personal sales representative. At our manufacturing facility, service parts are given top priority for completion. In addition, Sierra Pacific Windows offers a comprehensive warranty on all our products.

What about delivery?

At Sierra Pacific Windows, we understand the value of on-time delivery. All of our windows are grown, manufactured and delivered on the west coast. This means supreme quality, quicker turn around, and less shipping cost for you and your customers. We ship all our products in our own trucks. They are loaded and unloaded only once... decreasing the likelihood of damage or wear. Knowledgeable staff coupled with service systems and delivery that work... smart.
